

Lesson
18

A Day for the Moon

Vocabulary in Context

1

gigantic

Just one good play can make a gigantic, or very large, difference in a game.

2

miniature

Some people call miniature golf a sport, even though the course is small.

3

especially

This girl is especially proud that she won because she got a slow start.

4

lapped

After the swimming race, these kids rested as the water lapped gently at their legs.

crisp dry and cool

miniature very small; tiny

haze a mist in the air

gigantic huge; enormous

vanished disappeared

deliberately done on purpose

jealous want what someone else has especially mainly; particularly

lure attraction

lapped moved gently against

5

vanished

The fly ball sailed over this outfielder's head and vanished, or disappeared.

6

jealous

Kids can be jealous. They might envy a friend's success in sports.

7

haze

The soccer game was cancelled because of this foggy haze that filled the air.

8

lure

The best pitchers can lure, or tempt, a hitter to swing at the next pitch.

9

deliberately

On most relay teams, the best runner goes last deliberately, or on purpose.

10

crisp

This sharp, crisp image is a good one for a team scrapbook.

